*Our lives are simply a story we chose
to believe and agreed to act out*

MIRIAM CASTILLA

1. Your pattern around money is simply a habit

2. Old stories represent the beliefs that keep the pattern alive

3. You get to write a new story anytime you choose

How much money
you earn
makes no difference!

What's your Money Habit Archetype?

Accumulator

Spender

Overextender

A habit is simply an automatic & unconscious pattern in your nervous system

Stories are powerful

What's your first response to the word....

MONEY

What stories were you told about money
growing up?

You get to chose your story

Action demonstrates belief

The Process:

Answer these questions in your journal:

1. What were you told about money growing up? What's your earliest memory?
2. If someone believed that, how might they behave?
3. Can you see times in the past where you acted like that?
4. How does that fit with your Money Habit Archetype..?
5. If you had to sum up your parents belief about money in 1 sentence (each) - what would it be?
6. If you had to sum up the old belief about money that has kept you from moving forward in 1 sentence, what would it be?

The Process:

Next - write and live out a new story!

- Listen to the Money Story Keeper Meditation
- Write your new money story as YOU choose it to be. What beliefs about money, wealth, abundance and worthiness are you ready to take on and start to act out as the story of your life?
- Start NOW! What's an activity that demonstrates your belief in this new story? Take a selfie and share it using #abundanceselfie

Share in group:

#oldpattern - what feelings & words came up as your strongest associations to 'Money' ?

#oldstory - share the one sentence summary of the old money story and add ".. but it's only a story and I'm now ready to write a new one"

#newmoneystory - share your new money story with us

#expansion - keep playing the MMG. Notice what comes up and share which processes you're using. Ask your buddy for support and support them.
