

8 major interdependencies

	Divisions involved
• Safety: how does the cluster assure effective workplace health & safety and meet its obligations?	SER, OoS and all Divisions
• Strategic transport planning and placemaking: how does transport create successful local communities and positive economic outcomes across all modes?	CST, I&P, ROM, GS
• Customer, community & internal engagement comms: what are the different types of engagement (including comms), who sets the approach and owns the interactions with the different customers and community (e.g. Sydney residents)?	All divisions
• Capital projects: what is each Division's role across the capital planning, development and delivery process, including: problem definition, industry coordination, requirements & options analysis, private financing, investment decisions, prioritisation, delivery options, design, procurement, construction and testing?	I&P, GS, ROM, CST, Corp Services
• Stakeholder engagement: what are the different types of engagements, stakeholder groups? What divisions own the relationship and who sets the approach and interacts with stakeholders?	All divisions
• Asset Management: what is the holistic approach to end to end lifecycle management of Transport's assets?	GS, ROM, CST, I&P, SER
• Governance: how does the cluster establish appropriate governance?	OoS and all Divisions
• Corporate planning and budgeting: how does the cluster and Divisions link business planning to their budgets on an annual basis?	OoS, Corp Services, CST and all Divisions