The City of Charles Sturt has 9 Prime Industrial Precincts (highlighted in green on the adjacent map), which are considered as strategic industrial areas for the City as they contribute to the local economy. Previous Studies have highlighted the need to protect these Prime Industrial Precincts from rezoning and encroachment of residential housing.

Council’s 9 Prime Industrial Precincts include:

- Arndale (Precinct 31)
- Athol Park (Precinct 23)
- Beverley (Precinct 24)
- Hendon (Precinct 22 & 28)
- Hindmarsh (Precinct 29 & 43)
- Port Road/South Road (Precinct 26, 29 & 32)
- Royal Park (Precinct 33)
- West Croydon/Kilkenny (Precinct 31 & 36)
- Woodville North (Precinct 38)

The City also contains a number of other industrial precincts referred to as Secondary Industrial Precincts (highlighted in yellow on the adjacent map).

Read this brochure to find out about the objectives and investigations the City of Charles Sturt proposes to make to its Development Plan regarding the City’s Industry Zone.

COUNCIL’S PRIME INDUSTRIAL PRECINCTS

Have Your Say

Consultation closes 12 September 2014

Revitalisation of Employment Lands

Have your say on the future of the ‘Industry Zones’ in the City of Charles Sturt

72 Woodville Road, Woodville 5011
8408 1111
www.charlessturt.sa.gov.au

Read this brochure to find out about the objectives and investigations the City of Charles Sturt proposes to make to its Development Plan regarding the City’s Industry Zone.

COUNCIL’S PRIME INDUSTRIAL PRECINCTS

Have Your Say

Consultation closes 12 September 2014

Revitalisation of Employment Lands

Have your say on the future of the ‘Industry Zones’ in the City of Charles Sturt

72 Woodville Road, Woodville 5011
8408 1111
www.charlessturt.sa.gov.au

Read this brochure to find out about the objectives and investigations the City of Charles Sturt proposes to make to its Development Plan regarding the City’s Industry Zone.