Liposuction Treatment Information Sheet

Liposuction - permanent body shaping

Liposuction has come a long way, and is now considered a safe, permanent way to recontour the body.

We can do a full-body reshape or simply remove a tiny pocket of fat.

How soon will I see results?

Liposuction removes the fat cells from your body, and the impact of this means swelling lasts for many weeks.

Larger areas will have a longer recovery time, but you will start to see results when the swelling resolves, sometimes months.
