

Assure FAQs for Agents of Domain

What should I expect when I call Assure?

When you call 1800 808 374, please state that you are an Agent of Domain to ensure that you receive the right level of support. You will speak with a member of Assure's Client Support Team (CST) who can book an appointment for you. You are not expected to provide the reason for attending – this is a conversation saved for your session with the psychologist.

You can also request an appointment online at:

<https://assureprograms.com.au/book-an-appointment>. Once you've completed the form, a Client Support member will contact you during business hours to finalise and confirm your booking.

What happens if I need to speak with a psychologist straight away?

If you require urgent assistance, you can request to speak with a psychologist over the phone immediately or at a time suitable to you later that day. Please inform Assure's Client Support Team if you need to speak with someone urgently.

Is my contact with Assure reported back to Domain?

No. Assure is bound by confidentiality, no personal or identifying information is given to Domain and everything you say is confidential, similar to your interactions with doctors and lawyers.

How do I connect with the psychologist?

It's up to you. You can have a phone session or Skype session.

Are the psychologists qualified?

Yes. All Assure's counselling services are delivered by registered psychologists, nearly all with at least five years' experience.

Can I call the service after hours?

Yes, Assure operate 24/7/365. Urgent needs after hours, on weekends and public holidays are supported by Assure's on-call psychologists. Call Assure and follow the phone call prompts if you need urgent help after-hours.

How much does it cost me?

Confidential counselling services are completely free of charge – it's a benefit provided by Domain to you, to support your health and wellbeing. When you are nearing the maximum number of sessions (3) under the program, your psychologist will discuss options for ongoing support, including what cost, if any, there is.

What happens if I miss my appointment?

Assure require 24 hours' notice if you are not able to attend a booked appointment. This is important to allow others to access the service sooner by taking your appointment time. If you do not provide one business days' notice, you will lose a session from your allocation (3). Assure will provide you with reminders that you need to give at least one business days' notice if you cannot attend an appointment. However, it is your responsibility to provide sufficient notice.

How long is this service available for?

This service will be available until 31st December 2020.
