The Carbine Club of PNG celebrated the sport of Cricket at a lunch held at the Crown Hotel in Port Moresby on 17 May. Almost three hundred people were on hand to enjoy an entertaining lunch headlined by none other than Jeff “Thommo” Thomson, arguably the fastest and scariest bowler any batsman ever had to face.

The event was sponsored by relative newcomers to PNG, Total, the French petroleum company that is in negotiation to sign on for the next major gas project in PNG.

Toasts were made to PNG, the Carbine Club and Cricket. Robert Nilkare made the toast to PNG, followed by Isikeli ‘Ken’ Taureka who made the toast to the Carbine Club. Isikeli is our new Patron of the Carbine Club of PNG, appointed after our long serving and highly respected Patron, Bart Philemon, stood down after many years in the position.

The final toast, to Cricket, was made by Assad Vala, captain of the Barra’s (short for Barramundi’s), PNG’s senior mens’ cricket team. The Barra’s have just progressed to the next step of the qualification progress into the 50 overs World Cup tournament. Vala thanked the Carbine Club who were able to make a small contribution through the donation of an ice machine to Cricket PNG in the preceding month.

After lunch was served the main act took to the stage – Jeffrey Robert Thomson – or Thommo as most people know him. Thommo was famous for his distinctive bowling action, his incredible speed and his ability to instill fear into anyone that faced him – just ask the Sri Lankan team that faced him in the 1975 One Day World Cup. Thommo entertained with yarns about the times he shared with legends of the game like Lillee, Chappell, Marsh et al. interspersed with a bit of stand up comedy.

Comedian Dave Brown had the unenviable task of following up after Thommo, but he did so with flying colours, entertaining the appreciative crowd.

There was a general consensus at the end of the event that this was one of those lunches to remember.
On the 5th April, The Carbine Club of Hong Kong held its annual Rugby 7s Luncheon at the Hong Kong Football Club. Notwithstanding the lunch falling on a public holiday, a total of 570 members and their guests enjoyed an afternoon of great food, wine and entertainment, which made it our second most attended Carbine Club lunch ever in Hong Kong. Special thanks must also go to our event sponsors, Cathay Pacific and Grand Hyatt for their continued and unwavering support of the club and our Rugby 7s Lunch.

With regular MC and CCHK member, Murray Burton unable to attend the event, CCHK Past President Trevor Gregory stepped into the breach and did an outstanding job as our MC for the afternoon. Trevor introduced our distinguished guests which included, Michaela Browning, Australian Consul General to Hong Kong and Macau, Brett Gosper, CEO of World Rugby, Chris Kelly, President of Rugby Football Union, ex-All Black and event speaker Josh Kronfeld, speaker, ex-Welsh International and event speaker, Shane Williams and our Comedian and member of the Australian Sudoku team, Mick Collis. The club was also delighted to welcome Bernie Campbell, Chairman of The Carbine Club of NSW who was attending the lunch with guests.

With the crowded room truly enjoying the Hong Kong Football Club F&B, our first speaker Josh Kronfeld talked about his time as an All Black and revealed an outstanding talent for playing the harmonica. Following Josh was Shane Williams, who told the amusing tale of his impressive rugby career that lead him to the all time leading Welsh international try scorer.

Our 3rd speaker was Australian Sudoku legend, Mick Colliss. Mick was inducted into the Australian Sudoku Hall of Fame where it is said that as a former Australian vice-captain, Mick was known as Mr. Consistent. He consistently attempted one-star puzzles and consistently performed poorly. An extremely reliable player who never surprised anyone. Mick had the entire audience captivated with the hilarious story of his personal journey and unwavering desire to pull on the green and gold to represent his country.

"The final whistle was blown" at 4pm where many members and guests made the short journey to the Hong Kong Stadium to enjoy the end of the first day of the Hong Kong International Rugby 7s Tournament.

Thanks to all members and their guest for attending the event and supporting our event charity, the Hong Kong Rugby Charitable Trust. Thanks to the generosity of all attendees we will be donating in excess of HKD251,000 (AUD45,000) to support the important work they do in our community.
When it comes down to business there are few in Darwin more highly regarded than Doug Perdom Phillips. This year Doug capped it all off with a Member of the Order of Australia (AM) in the Queen’s Birthday Honours list for 2019.

Doug is celebrating 44 years in the Territory and with that comes a stellar list of achievements. Not surprisingly the recognition is for significant service to business in the Northern Territory. “You don’t expect these things … it’s definitely not what you go work for each day,” Doug said.

Doug arrived in Darwin in 1975, not long after Cyclone Tracy and has seen the place grow from very much a place of destruction to a modern tropical city. An initial six week assignment in Darwin with Price Waterhouse accountants turned into a life time in the NT with Doug running a motor dealership at 25 years of age.

Doug is the NT Procurement Review Board chairman, sits on the NT Development Consent Authority, deputy chair of the Automobile Association of the NT, board member of the Industry Capabilities Network NT and member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants.

President Michael Bridge noted that Doug has contributed to the community in a big way – and not just through his roles in Carbine Club of NT, including stints as President and Treasurer. He spent many years as the Deputy Chair of the NT Employment and Training Authority, has been a member of the Planning Authority and has quietly worked behind the scenes to help Territorians young and old struggling with navigating the issues of life and work through his knowledge and experience.

A man of humour and humility, he’s a major contributor to our club and to the lives of many of the members as a friend and colleague and – from all of us – we offer a heartfelt congratulations- Well done Doug Phillips AM.

Fellow lovers of Sport,
The Scrums Sumos and Sake Carbine Club Rugby Lunch will give those going to the World Cup a taste of what they can expect, and for those not attending a taste of what they are missing out on (and maybe a chance to still go)!

Phil Kearns will MC a hilarious (and culturally enriching afternoon) with Craig Wing who played for Japan in the last World Cup (is there anyone who doesn’t like watching replays of the last five minutes of Japan beating the Springboks in 2015?), George Gregan, Matt Cockbain and a host of other Wallabies who played on our last World Cup winning side in 1999 or played and coached in Japan to share stories of their experiences. There will definitely be Sumos, Sake and many other Japanese delights and experiences at the lunch...Scrums will have to wait until guests are off-premises! This is definitely a ‘party lunch’ that you and your guests will walk away from feeling uplifted by the experience.
