Next Cab off the Rank?

The Carbine Club of WA members will gather at the Shoe Function Centre on 24 July for a Members Only Luncheon with guest Trevor Nisbett, CEO of the West Coast Eagles. Good to hear that mine host and Club President Kieran "Bluey" Glynn and his band of merry men have struck an early blow for fellowship and good cheer!

Word has filtered out from Port Moresby that the members up there have started to enjoy some informal gatherings amongst themselves – the Club's 30th celebrations went on hold and many people are hoping for the opportunity to join in the anniversary party which will be held later this year when restrictions are eased, even gone, and CCNT has already conducted the first post COVID event – more on that in the next edition!

Sport & Life – A Fun Podcast

Sam Kekovich needs no introduction to Club members, being a regular on our circuit, and Leon Wiegard needs even less introduction! To help relieve the boredom associated with the lack of Club functions Leon & Sam have teamed up to produce a weekly podcast called Sport & Life, described by the duo as 'a bit of fun' centred around sport.

The team's first guest was larger than life character Big Bad Mal Brown, a former Carbine Club President and their second guest was Simon Crean.
