Tasmania- Racing Luncheon

The big event for the year for CCTAS is the annual racing luncheon which is held at Ladbrokes Park, Elwick Racecourse in association with the Tasmanian Racing Club (TRC).

Friday 9 Feb saw the running of the Tasmanian Derby at the TRC's twilight race meeting and the special race day was preceded by the Carbine Club's luncheon. Following the luncheon members and guests were invited to retain their table in the wonderful surrounds of the Committee area of the grandstand, and to enjoy the great racing on offer.

Special guest recently retired champion jockey Damien Oliver gave the gathering a great insight into his career, helped along by skilful interviewer and recent addition to CCTAS membership ranks Brent Crawford. Brent is also Deputy Chair of the Launceston based Tasmanian Turf Club (TTC) and in further involvement of the TTC in CCTAS, later in the day the Club was thrilled to induct another new member in Alison Archer who has a long and deep involvement in thoroughbred racing and is currently the Chair of the TTC.

CCQLD FOSTERING TALENT

Carbine Club of Queensland 2017 Bill Brown Medal Winner Xavier Bartlett has put in some outstanding cricketing performances recently.

Born in Adelaide, Xavier's family moved to Queensland when he was a child. He came through the age-groups ranks with Queensland and made his first XI Premier Cricket debut for Gold Coast Dolphins as a 17-year-old.

Recently, Xavier made his Australia ODI debut against the West Indies and took 4 wickets for 17 runs. In his second match took 4 wickets for 21 runs winning man of the match for both games and topping it off with Man of the Series award.

CCQ members extend congratulations to Xavier.

Vale Geoff Druce

Members from Carbine Clubs worldwide will be saddened by the death in Melbourne of RACV Club Carbine Bar manager Geoff Druce at the age of 71.

Geoff joined the RACV Club in his twenties and clocked up nearly 50 years' service to that Club. The great majority of that time was bar supervisor or manager of the at the RACV Club at 123 Queen St and since 2005 at the Club's Carbine Bar at 501 Bourke St.

Geoff knew many Carbine Club members and greeted them by name. Always courteous and considerate, it was always a great pleasure to see Geoff's smiling face behind the bar after the annual delegates' meetings at the RACV Club, or before the annual dinner. Or both!

He will be greatly missed by many members.

Geoffrey Francis Druce, Carbine Bar Manager, born 15/02/1952, died 3/10/2023
