Our Story

Suprema Bakeries are experts in developing, manufacturing and distributing a range of innovative, high-quality frozen dough products to bakeries, supermarkets, cafes, hotels and restaurants across Australia. We proudly make our doughs locally at our Western Sydney factory, and our range includes a variety of artisan loaves, rolls, filled products and scrolls. Above all, we guarantee our customers the highest product quality and consistency without compromise. We balance this with flavour, volume, aroma, texture and crust.

Our tech-advanced and highly-automated facility produces premium products to scale, meeting the rapidly growing national demand. Our breakthrough method in baking provides an abundance of benefits to our customers.

Our Australian team consists of professional bakers, product specialists and food technologists. This specialist team invests in new product development using techniques and ingredients developed through research and growth initiatives led by our parent company Prima Group, a pioneering global company with over 50 years of experience in the baking industry.

Our Philosophy

Suprima Bakeries stands to achieve one mission: to take the hard work out of baking. Through continual product innovation, we aim to transform your baking process so you can focus on what matters most—running a profitable and competitive business while delighting your customers. At Suprima, we understand how challenging this can be which is why we are committed to empowering bakeries to work smarter using frozen dough.

Now, this might seem like a grand claim, but we strongly believe that our frozen dough can shape positive change in the industry. To help baking professionals and business owners meet shifting competitive demands, we have developed our premium frozen dough products. Suprima customers have found that taking advantage of Suprima's frozen dough products has enabled them to innovate without forgoing the craftsmanship of baking. The result? Consistently high-quality bakery products that can demand a higher premium, and also make your customers smile. Read on to discover Suprima's range of products which can help you save time and money, for a more efficient alternative to traditional baking.
