The Graduate Certificate in Financial Planning (Professional Practice) and the Graduate Diploma of Financial Planning are twelve week and twenty-four week courses respectively, that meet the educational requirements for financial advisers, set by the Financial Standards and Ethics Authority (FASEA).

The Graduate Certificate in Financial Planning (Professional Practice) is a short course for existing financial planners and advisers who already hold a degree or higher qualification in a finance field, which is not a FASEA approved course.

The Graduate Diploma of Financial Planning is designed for:
- existing financial planners and advisers who need to meet the FASEA education requirements
- career changers who hold a degree qualification but have no previous work experience as a financial planner or adviser, or career changers with extensive financial services experience

BRIDGING COURSES

TAFE NSW also offers a number of other short courses, designed to assist existing financial planners to meet FASEA bridging course requirements, and include:
- Ethics and Professional Standards for Financial Planners (flexible online)
- Commercial and Corporations Law for Financial Planners.
- Behavioural Finance for Financial Planners

All of these courses have been designed to prepare you for the FASEA Financial Adviser examination.
This degree will prepare you to work as a business professional across a range of industries in national and international contexts.

You will gain knowledge that is transferable to many industry sectors, including management, finance, human resources, technology information systems and marketing elements of an integrated business strategy. This degree also extends your knowledge of using business and online technologies, business research methodologies, critical analysis and conceptual thinking, creative reasoning and problem-solving, which all lead to the development of interpersonal, teamwork and leadership skills.

The range of career opportunities available to you on completion of this degree are limited only by your imagination.

BACHELOR OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
(DATA INFRASTRUCTURE ENGINEERING)

Course Code: HE20525

This course will give graduates the skills required for building data systems, architecture and platforms to support big data solutions.

Big data is a fast evolving field in business and commerce, enjoying a growing demand for professionals with the expertise to build IT solutions to manage it.

In this course you will develop a thorough understanding of IT systems, concepts and methodologies, as well as a comprehensive knowledge of networking, technology and systems, data security and infrastructure engineering.

You will also develop analytical and critical evaluation skills that you will be able to apply to practical projects and simulated real workplace contexts.

On successful completion of this course you will be able to work in a range of roles related to the management and security of big data.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The Bachelor of Information Technology (Data Infrastructure Engineering) requires you to complete 24 subjects and a total of 240 credit points.

A one year Diploma of Information Technology is also available, requiring the completion of 8 subjects and 80 credit points.

STUDY MODE AND DURATION

Three years full-time or part-time equivalent

COURSE DELIVERY LOCATION

- TAFE NSW Meadowbank

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

All applicants will be invited to a pre-admission interview prior to being offered a place in this course. All applicants will also have to submit a 500 word essay outlining their motivation to study and work in the field.

Domestic applicants must have completed:

- the NSW HSC or equivalent with HSC level Maths, or
- a Tertiary Preparation Certificate, or
- a Certificate IV or higher qualification

If you do not have HSC mathematics you may be required to undertake a bridging program or preparatory mathematics course. If you do not meet the entry requirements, you can apply under special admission provisions (such as mature age or disadvantage). You will be required to submit documentation to support your application for special admission.

International applicants must have an overall IELTS score of 6.5 (with no band less than 6.0) to apply. The IELTS test must have been completed in the last two years.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for admission into an undergraduate degree program you must satisfy at least one of the following four minimum entry requirements:

- NSW HSC or equivalent, or
- Recognised Tertiary Preparation Certificate, or
- Certificate IV level or higher vocational qualification, or
- Completion of at least one year full-time study or equivalent in a degree course at a higher education institution

You do not require an Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR) for admission.

If you do not satisfy the above minimum eligibility requirements, you can apply for entry into a course under special admission provisions including mature age and disadvantage. You will be required to submit documentation to support your application for special admission.

Some courses have additional course specific entry requirements which are listed in this booklet.

HOW TO APPLY AND ENROL

To apply for any of our courses go to www.tafensw.edu.au/degrees

Your application must be received by the closing date indicated. Late applications will be accepted if places in the course are still available.

Your application will be assessed against the entry requirements for the course. Where the number of applications exceeds places available in the course, applicants will be ranked based on the merits of their application.

If your application is successful you will receive an email offering you a place in the course. The email will provide further information about how to enrol.

EARLY ENTRY PROGRAM

Did you know that you could receive a conditional TAFE NSW Degree offer before you finish your HSC?

Visit tafensw.edu.au/early-entry-program to find out more.
TUITION FEES

Tuition fees vary between courses, are reviewed annually and are subject to change. Tuition fees payable by the student are the fees valid for that semester, and not the tuition fees that were in place the first time the student enrolled. Additional fees may be payable for equipment and resources.

DOMESTIC STUDENTS

Domestic students pay tuition fees each semester on a per subject basis, i.e. fees are only due for subjects you are enrolled in for that semester. Domestic students must pay their tuition fees by census date.

Eligible students can take out a FEE-HELP loan to pay their tuition fees – ‘Study Now, Pay Later!’

FEE-HELP is an Australian government student loan scheme. More information about FEE-HELP including eligibility criteria is available online at studyassist.gov.au/help-loans/fee-help.

Domestic students intending to withdraw from a subject or course must do so by the advertised census date, or they will be liable for the tuition fees (or the FEE-HELP loan liability) for the subjects they are withdrawing from.

More information about tuition fees is available online at: tafensw.edu.au/degrees/applying-and-fees/fees-and-payment

RECOGNITION FOR PREVIOUS STUDIES

If you have completed other studies in a related field or have extensive relevant industry experience, you may be eligible for exemption from similar subjects in the degree program you enrol in. All applications for exemption must be made to the course coordinator and must include supporting documentation. You should attend classes until you are formally advised that your application for exemption has been granted.

INFORMATION FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS
