

Disasters and emergencies

Whether it's bushfires, floods, cyclones or prolonged drought, we understand that disasters have a devastating impact on communities and individuals.

We realise that in the aftermath of a disaster, it's easy to feel overwhelmed by the enormity of what needs to be done.

You don't have to take that journey alone. The Salvation Army is available to provide advice and clarity, to make sense of what the next steps are and help you regain some control over the situation.

We are here to support you for as long as it takes to recover.

Need help?

The Salvation Army Disasters Assistance team is available to help those affected in any state or territory across Australia. Contact them today for advice and support:

sal.disasters@salvationarmy.org.au

1300 662 217