

Meet our current grantees

Project summaries

Australia-Arab International Journalism Speaker Program

The Australia-Arab International Journalism Speaker Program will build on the success of the Foundation's more than 30 media exchange programs so far,

22 August 2017

2018 AMEJE University of Canberra / University of Adelaide study tour

The 2018 AMEJE University of Canberra/University of Adelaide study tour will take a delegation of high-achieving journalism students on a professional

22 August 2017

LRLF - NRL Rugby League Education Program

Seven Lebanese technical leaders visit Sydney during the 2017 Rugby League World Cup to participate in two NRL educator seminars, one for coaching, on

22 August 2017

FFA Middle Eastern Football Exchange

The project will entail a delegation from Football Federation Australia travelling to the Middle East to engage on the development of football in Asia

22 August 2017

Showcasing Palestinian Culture

A recent Roy Morgan Poll revealed that only 44% of Australians feel they know about Palestinian culture.

22 August 2017

Adelaide Film Festival 2017

The Adelaide Film Fest, 5-15 October 2017, is thrilled to welcome Ms Hania Mroue to Adelaide. Ms Mroue will sit on the Flinders University Documentary

22 August 2017

The Foreign Correspondent Study Tour

This project is designed to offer 12 postgraduate journalism students a two week study tour to Jordan.

22 August 2017

Contemporary Puppetry Exchange between Jordan and Australia

A new, original theatre performance for children, with cross-cultural content, will be co-produced by Terrapin Puppet Theatre (Australia) and Haya Cul

22 August 2017

Arab Film Festival Australia 2018

The Arab Film Festival Australia (AFFA) will proudly present its 15th edition in 2018 in Sydney, Melbourne and Canberra.

22 August 2017

Academic and Cultural Relationship Enhancement

Professor Mohamad Abdalla will give a series of expert talks on the importance of deeper Arab collaboration with Australian universities in order to f

22 August 2017

Sharing Syrian scholarship on ISIS with the Australian public

This project will bring the leading Syrian researcher Hassan Hassan to Australia for a week in early 2018 to give public lectures (Melbourne, Sydney)

22 August 2017

Democracy Education in Tunisia – Building Capacity among Youth Leaders

The project will involve youth leaders from Tunisia who are seen as potential change-makers in the area of civic and democracy education.

22 August 2017

Palestinian Film Festival Australia 2017

The Palestinian Film Festival Australia is an innovative, grassroots community initiative dedicated to the promotion of Palestinian arts and culture i

22 August 2017

Sportswomen for Change Leadership Forum

Football United will host the Sportswomen for Change Leadership Forum, a week-long residential program that will invite up to six female practitioners

22 August 2017

Shaun Parker & Company's TROLLEYS tour to Downtown Cairo Arts Festival

Shaun Parker & Company will undertake a cultural exchange centred around performances of dance theatre work TROLLEYS at outdoor sites during Downtown

22 August 2017

Responsible Business and IT Vlogs: Fashion through an Ethical Kaleidoscope

ReBitVlogs project aims to engage students on responsible business and information technology-use to develop research across campuses with a focus on

22 August 2017

Study tour by delegation from Morocco 3 Local Governments

Invite three female members of Moroccan local councils to visit Australia, for learning about local governance and to establish a network of exchanges

22 August 2017

Bahrain Lifesaving and Swimming Development Program

In October 2016, Life Saving Victoria in Australia assisted Royal Life Saving Bahrain to develop the first Water Safety Strategy for Bahrain.

22 August 2017

Australia-Kuwait Journalism Exchange

After CAAR introduced the Walkley Foundation to the Kuwait Embassy with the intention of initiating an exchange program, an Australian delegation made

22 August 2017

Kahlil Gibran Exhibition

Museums Victoria proposes presenting an exhibition of paintings and manuscripts by Kahlil Gibran, a well-known artist, writer and poet of Lebanese and

22 August 2017

More news