The grants will provide funding for community groups to run a single event or a series of events in their community to address mental health. The events can range from community barbeques, regular fitness meet-ups, community tree planting, or a family movie night – whatever your community needs to come together and take a break.

There is currently one grant program open for the following communities:

- Drought-affected communities in East Gippsland and Northern Victoria

Applications from neighboring shires will also be considered. Please email lookoverthefarmgate@vff.org.au or call 1300 882 833 to discuss your eligibility.
