NORSE TABLE

The rustic finish and solid farmhouse construction of the Norse Table creates a timeless look of charm and strength. This rustic dining table oozes old world spunk inspired by medieval Scandinavian times. Designed and made in NZ the Norse Table is available in a range of stains and sizes with a bar leaner counterpart, and can be a real feature in your bar, cafe or restaurant to add to your atmosphere.

The solid ash is finished with a skip-dressed texture, telling the story of its creation. The Norse Table is favoured for bar and restaurant furniture and will remain resilient and timeless for years to come.
