

GIORGIA ZANELLATO

Giorgia Zanellato is an appreciated and brilliant product designer born in Venice, where she took her first steps in the artistic field. She Graduated from the IUAV University and subsequently recieved a Masters in Product Design from the prestigious ECAL Swiss institute.

Currently, she is part of the Fabrica - Benetton Group communications research team, and besides collaborating as a freelance designer for various companies and art galleries, has under her belt various participations in important cultural events in Italy and the world.

