Colchester Global Investors Appoints Angela MacPherson to Head of Distribution Australia

Colchester Global Investors, a leading global sovereign bond manager, has appointed Angela MacPherson as Head of Distribution Australia. She will be responsible for introducing Colchester's Global Government Bond Fund to the Australian intermediary market place for the first time in a bid to capitalise on recent strong research ratings and platform interest.

She has 20 years of experience in the financial services industry and has held senior roles at Challenger, AMP Capital, AXA and Macquarie Bank.

"The appointment of someone of the calibre of Angela will be instrumental for Colchester to build a meaningful presence in the intermediary space in Australia over the medium to long term" said Singapore Managing Director Paul Allen.

"It is an exciting time for the business, we are pursuing a deliberate strategy of diversifying both our client base and also our geographic location. Now with our new office here in Australia, we intend to capitalise on our strong institutional client support and investment ratings to build our distribution to intermediaries" Singapore Managing Director Paul Allen said.
