

Gus Murray

Gus is a talented, insightful tutor and brings an abundance of skill and energy to the NIDA Corporate team. Gus' acting career has encompassed screen, theatre, musical theatre and voiceover. His television credits include Packed to the Rafters, McLeod's Daughters, Australia: The Story of Us, and Farscape. In film, Gus has appeared in John Duigan's Careless Love and Baz Luhrmann's The Great Gatsby. His theatre work includes shows with the Darlinghurst Theatre, Downstairs Belvoir, and SBW Stables followed by a national tour of the musical Avenue Q. He most recently appeared in the Australian and New Zealand tour of Agatha Christie's The Mousetrap.

As well as being an experienced actor, Gus has degrees in Arts (Psychology) and Law from Sydney University, enhancing his awareness of the communication skills required and challenges faced by corporate professionals.

