It commences when a student encounters an issue relating to a course or experience and contacts Open Colleges for assistance.

2. Procedure

- Should the issue be about the Student Support Team, the Head of Shared Services (or delegate) will deal with the issue
- The Online Community Support Officer or Student Support Officer will investigate the issue by discussing the matter with the student by phone or email, obtain additional information if necessary or consult with relevant OC staff
- SRO/OCSO will propose a resolution for the issue (s) to the student (by phone, in writing, or via email and record the proposed solution in Firefly) within 2 days or within 5 days if further investigation is required
- Upon agreement, the SSO/OCSO will act on the proposed resolution, finalise the issue with the student's agreement, record information in Firefly and close the case
- The Head Shared Services will report on issues and outcomes to the Executive Team

Note: If the student is dissatisfied with the resolution of their issue, or believes the outcome of their issue is inconsistent with Open Colleges Policies and Procedures, they will be provided with an option to:
