Dear Mr Kerwin,

Re: Development Application

I advise that Council received your comments (hereinafter referred to as "submission") dated 22 March, 2005 concerning the following Development Application on 22 March, 2005.

Development Application No: DA 400701
Applicant: Clutha Creek Pastoral Pty Ltd
Development Type: Material Change of Use
Proposal: Extractive Industry
Site Address: 111 Clutha Creek Road, Tamborine

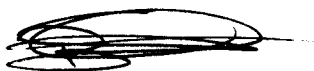

Under the Integrated Planning Act 1997 you may:

- (a) write to Council during the public notification period and modify the submission, or
- (b) write to Council at any time before a decision is made and withdraw the submission.

If Council requires the Development Application to undergo the public notification procedure again, your submission remains valid unless otherwise advised. You may also amend or withdraw your submission should the public notification procedure regarding this Development Application re-occur.

Your comments will be considered in the assessment of the application and you will be advised of Council's decision in due course. The process under the Integrated Planning Act 1997 that applications must follow may take some time to complete. The time taken is variable and may extend from approximately three months to substantially more should further matters require consideration.

Yours faithfully,

B. Craddock
