

PHILLIPPA CROOKES | ACCOUNT MANAGER
DEPUTY HEAD OF TEAM PROPOSITION | MERRYCK

OVERVIEW

As Deputy Head of the Team Proposition, Phillippa is involved in the development and delivery of the Team Programmes at Merryck. She also works closely with senior business leaders, key stakeholders and the Faculty at Merryck on a portfolio of accounts to facilitate delivery and ensure that we meet and exceed our current and ever evolving requirements.

CAREER HISTORY

Phillippa has 15 year of experience of working within professional services in the Executive Development and Leadership space. She has a wealth of expertise, working as a trusted adviser to C-suite Executives and Non-Executives, challenging them to use innovative solutions to achieve their strategic business objectives.

Prior to joining Merryck, Phillippa spent 5 years at Criticaleye, a community of C-Suite leaders, managing the relationship with executive level individuals across a diverse portfolio of functions, sectors and business sizes. In this role she chaired panel discussions and strategy sessions for Executive Leadership Teams. She spent much of her earlier career working within Leadership Services business for Penna the HR Consultancy (now owned by Adecco).

Phillippa has a BA (Hons) from the University of Southampton.

PERSONAL

In her spare time, Phillippa endeavours to keep fit and enjoys going to the Theatre and travelling around the world.