The National Disability Insurance Scheme is coming to your neighbourhood

Easy Read

Nobody knows my disability like me.

The National Disability Insurance Scheme is coming to South Australia.

Government of South Australia
Department for Communities and Social Inclusion
This page has been left blank
The National Disability Insurance Scheme is coming to your neighbourhood

The National Disability Insurance Scheme is also called the NDIS.

The NDIS is a way to help people with disability get support.

To get support you must be under 65.

Your State Government is working with the NDIS and lots of companies who provide disability services in South Australia.
Come to a meeting

We want to talk to you about the changes to disability services.

You can ask questions.

Come to the meeting if you live in one of these local council areas:

- Adelaide Plains Council
- Light Regional Council
- The Barossa Council
- Town of Gawler
Where is the meeting?

The meeting will be at the Gawler Sport and Community Centre, Nixon Terrace, Gawler.

When is the meeting?

The meeting will be on Friday 12 May 2017.

The meeting will start at 10.00 am.

The meeting will stop at 1.30 pm.
Tell us you are coming to the meeting

You will need to register to let us know you are coming to the meeting.

This means giving us some information, like your name and phone number.

Go to this website to register –
http://www.mysupportmychoice.sa.gov.au
More information

Phone 1800 952 962
(Monday to Friday, 9.00 am to 5.00 pm)

Email expoattendee@sa.gov.au