Guidance Notes – Identifying Conflicts of Interest

- Conflicts of interest should be disclosed upon a director's appointment, and then from time to time as they arise based on the Board's agenda.
- When determining whether to disclose an actual, potential or perceived conflict, consider the following issues:
 - Is my opinion on this matter influenced by my obligations or affiliations to any club, association, region or other organisation?
 - Do I have any ethical concerns that are related to this matter?
 - Do I have doubts about my ability to act impartially in relation to this matter?
 - Do I stand to benefit personally in some way from this matter?
 - Am I involved in this matter as an individual rather than solely through my role on the Board?
 - Will I receive a financial gain or benefit from this matter?
 - Does this matter concern any of my board or committee appointments to other organisations?
 - Does this matter concern my current employment?
 - Do I have significant family or other relationships with persons involved in this matter?
