

1. If you could have the life that you desire, what elements would it include? Write your answer as dot points and as if these things had already been achieved. (Consider your physical and mental health, family & friends, wealth, career and education)

2. What are your biggest fears and concerns regarding your future?

3. What would it be worth to you if you could create the success that you have identified in Question 1 above, while eliminating your fears and concerns at the same time?

Creating a detailed plan for personal success can enable you to create the success you desire and eliminate your fears and concerns from your life.
