CENTACARE NQ
SUPPORT SERVICE

Normanton Youth Service supports young people who are not supported by protective factors to enable them to lead safe, healthy and active lives.

Projects and activities will be aimed at connecting young people to their community and actively involve them in project identification and planning to address their areas of interest and concerns.

Young people will also be encouraged to proactively identify ways to ensure project success and develop their skills and confidence during the delivery of the project.

Risk Factors

Risk factors may increase young people's vulnerability to harm and negative life outcomes

- family conflict and parental stress
- domestic and family violence
- peer to peer violence
- bullying
- other forms of abuse or neglect
- poverty
- income instability/absence
- housing stress/homelessness
- unemployment
- disengagement from school
- pregnancy
- sexual assault
- drugs
- illicit and volatile substances
- alcohol use
- racism

Youth Support

The service also provides young people with case management that is collaborative, coordinated and person-centred. Young people will be supported to meet their individual needs and to increase their self-reliance and independence through assessment and planning.

Opening Hours

Monday 11am - 7pm
Tuesday to Friday 8.30am - 5pm

Referrals to the service will include young people at risk of:

- Disconnecting from family, community, prosocial or recreation activities, or informal support networks
- Disengaging from school, training and/or employment
- Harm including self-harm and suicide
- Cultural disconnection
- Homelessness
- Entering, or already involved in, the Youth Justice System, including those who are exiting detention or under youth justice supervision
