

Date: Saturday 16 September 2017 – 10am to 2pm

Venue: Amaroo on Mandalay, Nelly Bay, Magnetic Island

Facilitator: Adam Smith, Director, Reef Ecologic

Today's presentations will be video recorded and will be uploaded to the Port of Townsville website for future reference.

WORKSHOP CONDUCT

- The facilitator is present to ensure the workshop stays on track within the timeframes allocated – respect is to be afforded to the facilitator.
- The agenda for today's forum was assembled based on feedback and requests for further information/discussion from attendees at the first forum in April 2017.
- Questions and discussions are to stay on point and within the scope of the agenda.
- All participants are expected to maintain composure, be respectful at all times and extend courtesy to other participants.
- We request no interjection during presentations, sufficient time is allocated for questions and answers to be addressed following each presentation.
- Questions can either be asked in person or sent by SMS to 0413 212 058 during the form.

TODAY'S GUEST SPEAKERS

Geoff Dalgliesh

Queensland State Manager K Line Shipping,
Chairman Shipping Australia Limited

Geoff has worked in the transport, logistics, shipping industry for 28 years in various levels of management. For the past 4 years he has also served in a voluntary capacity as Chairman of the Queensland shipping representative body, Shipping Australia Limited (SAL), representing international shipping lines on a local basis.

Geoff has managed two state offices for K Line Australia for the past 18 years. K Line's parent company is Japan-based Kawasaki Kisen Kaisha Ltd (KKK); an international shipping company involved in all facets of the industry both in Australia and globally.

As QLD State Manager, he is responsible for all ports in this state that KKK call, either on a direct and or indirect basis including Weipa, Capricorn Flattery, Townsville, Abbott Point, DBCT, Hay Point, Gladstone and Brisbane.

Julie O'Brien

Tourism and Events Queensland and the Department of Tourism, Education and Small Business

As Manager in the Destinations and Partnerships team, Julie works closely with Queensland's 13 ports of call to ensure the destinations and tourism operators are cruise-ready and meet the needs of the cruise passenger and cruise lines alike.

Julie has over 25 years' experience in the tourism industry in both public and private sector and has worked with Tourism and Events Queensland for a total of 16 of those years.

She has considerable cruise market experience and serves as the Deputy Chair of the Australian Cruise Association.
