Introduction.

A Jewel investment Opportunity in the Inner South

Welcome to a truly rare investment opportunity. 14 Barker Street, Griffith is superbly positioned in the heart of Canberra's Inner South, within a thriving local shopping precinct that services the well-established and affluent suburbs of Red Hill, Forrest, Griffith, Kingston and Narrabundah.

The property is fully leased, comprising seven tenancies ranging in size from 17m² to 308m², making it a highly sought-after destination for a diverse mix of businesses.

Anchoring the ground floor is Mountain Creek Wholefoods, one of Canberra's most iconic and long-standing local operators. Established in the mid-1980s, it has built a loyal following and strong reputation within the Inner South community. Complementing this is Mountain Creek Bakery, a popular destination known for its artisan breads and pastries, further enhancing customer draw to the centre.

The first floor accommodates a range of complementary, service-based tenants including wellness practitioners, life coaches and psychologists. These smaller suites experience consistently high demand and are rarely vacant, often generating waiting lists.

A standout feature is the final tenancy, a contemporary office space incorporating a central atrium, high-quality kitchen, and an outdoor entertaining deck. The amenities have been finished to an exceptional standard, featuring custom lighting and striking cast concrete basins.

The building has recently undergone significant upgrades, including capital improvements and the installation of an 80kW solar system servicing the ground floor tenancy.

Ample on-site parking is provided, offering convenient and free access for both tenants and the strong volume of customers frequenting the precinct.
