With office space set over four floors, including the top two levels, views over the city and architecturally designed community spaces, 65 York Street marries a contemporary feel with art deco heritage. A short walk from Wynyard Station, explore boutique bars after hours and discover quaint, new eateries when entertaining clientele.

At 65 York Street, the high-quality workspaces are designed to accommodate discerning sole practitioners and small firms. From flexible desk spaces and coworking areas, to private office suites that can be customised to your specific requirements, and spacious meeting rooms for intimate discussions or larger groups, 65 York Street has been designed to enhance the way you work.
