

Clever Solutions For Breastfeeding Mums To Stay Warm At A Winter Wedding

With the cost of planning and paying for a wedding skyrocketing across our nation, an increasing number of Australian couples are choosing to walk down the aisle during the cooler months of the year to save money. Unfortunately, this may also mean that the guests may be left a bit chilly if they don't properly plan their outfit.

Women have a far more difficult time coordinating their outfits than men who can put on and take off their suit or tux jacket as they please. But even breastfeeding mums can stay snug and warm at a wintry wedding.

Wear A Sleeved Dress

Peachymama has a number of fashionable sleeved dresses for many different occasions. You can stun other wedding guests by showing up in our blazing Flame Black Breastfeeding Wrap Dress. Featuring bold and fiery shades of pink, orange and purple, this dress can be easily dressed up or down to suit the theme of the wedding.

Another top pick is our Printed Wrap Nursing Dress. With engaging black and white swirl, it is a stunning dress for any occasion and it looks great with both flats and heels.

Invest In An Infinity Scarf

Not only will these on-trend scarves keep you warm, but they also add that touch of style to your attire. They can act as a breastfeeding cover up if you are feeling self-conscious and, if you happen to catch a chill during a feed, the scarf can also be worn over your shoulders for added warmth.

Use A Nursing Slip As A Foundational Piece

Another product which Peachymama is proud to offer breastfeeding mums is our breastfeeding slip. Not only does our slip give you a bit of extra warmth during these cooler months of the year, but it can be worn under any of our dresses while still allowing you to easily, comfortably, and discreetly, feed your bub at the wedding.

Weddings can be lengthy affairs, and whether your baby is invited to attend or you need to pump while you are away from the day, our Peachymama fashions allow you to privately pump and feed without needing to bother with any clips, zips and other bothersome clasps and buttons.

We have just introduced our new clothing lines for the cooler months, which include our exciting Tutti Frutti breastfeeding dress and cutting edge Black Twist Breastfeeding Top. You can discover those fashions and more at <https://www.peachymama.com.au/collections/new-arrivals>
