

VOLUNTEER AT THE 2019 PERTH ROYAL SHOW

28 SEPTEMBER - 5 OCTOBER 2019 | PERTHROYALSHOW.COM.AU

THE PERTH ROYAL SHOW

Thousands of volunteers assist the Royal Agricultural Society of WA (RASWA) to stage the State's largest scale event, the Perth Royal Show.

Volunteers are welcome to assist everyday for the Show, in either the morning or the afternoon. The Show runs from 28 September - 5 October.

The minimum age to volunteer is 12 years old and we would like volunteers to attend for a minimum of three shifts.

We invite you to join us in 2019.

EVENT VOLUNTEERS

INFORMATION BOOTHS

Staffing the Information Booth at the three main entry gates: Railway Station, Gate 1 and Gate 10. Volunteers direct people to the different areas in the Showground, or answer questions about what's on and where the main activities are positioned.

ROVING INFORMATION VOLUNTEERS

In this role, volunteers walk around the Showground answering questions, giving directions, handing out maps and programs.

MEET AND GREET

In this role, you will be stationed at entry gates, handing out maps and programs as well as answering questions.

Training is provided on 14 September at 1.00pm

Shifts Available

8.30am – 1.30pm (with breaks)

1.30pm – 6.30pm (with breaks)

ANIMAL AREAS

Staffing the Pat a Pig, Pat a Bunny, Cuddle a Chicken, Cuddle a Cavy and Love a Lamb patting pens is a rewarding experience. Volunteers in this area need to supervise the entrance gate to control the number of people visiting the exhibit, ensuring the animals do not escape and are handled appropriately.

Training is provided on 14 September at 3.30pm

Shifts Available

9.00am – 12.00pm

12.00pm – 3.00pm

3.00pm – 6.00pm

EVENT VOLUNTEERS

ART

Volunteers are needed to staff the Perth Royal Art Prize exhibit and the Salon des Refusés.

The role of volunteers in the Wilkinson Gallery and the Salon des Refusés is to engage with the public to answer questions which are mainly based on the artworks (you can refer them to the catalogue to answer most questions), remind members of the public taking photos of the artworks, touching the artworks or bringing food or drinks into the gallery, that it is not permitted and you will need to keep the areas clean and tidy.

Shifts Available

8.45am – 1.00pm (with breaks)

1.00pm – 5.00pm (with breaks)

5.00pm – 8.00pm (with breaks)

EVENT VOLUNTEERS

COOKERY

Volunteers who are interested in cooking and/or cake decorating are needed to assist with preparation and clean-up of cooking demonstrations. You need to be confident talking to the public and answering questions. If you are unsure of the answer, would you be prepared to find out or direct the person to one of the committee members? If so, please come and join us.

People experienced with Jams and Preserves who like to interact with people are also required.

CREATIVE CRAFTS

The Creative Craft section requires interested volunteers to assist the public who may have queries regarding the exhibited display and how to enter future competitions. Volunteers are required to ensure the displays are not handled. Where appropriate you may be required to assist the demonstrators during set up.

You will be walking around and standing for the majority of your shift. You need to be confident talking to the public and if unsure of the answers, direct them to the appropriate person.

People with some knowledge and experience in crafts would be of advantage.

Training will be provided

Shifts Available

8.45am – 1.30pm (with breaks)

1.30pm – 6.00pm (with breaks)

SECTION VOLUNTEERS

There are some opportunities in the competitive sections if you have knowledge or skills in a specific area. For example, if you have a background with sheep or cattle there may be an opportunity for you to work in sheep, wool or cattle and assist during the competition.

HORSES

There are some opportunities for assistance behind the scenes, acting as runners to and from the main arena with results, counting ribbons, marshalling before the competition etc.

Training will be provided

Shifts Available

8.30am – 6.00pm (with breaks)

SECTION VOLUNTEERS

DOGS

Volunteers are required to assist the stewards in the dog section. This could involve handing out prize certificates to exhibitors or controlling the entrance and exit to the dog judging lawn.

Shifts Available

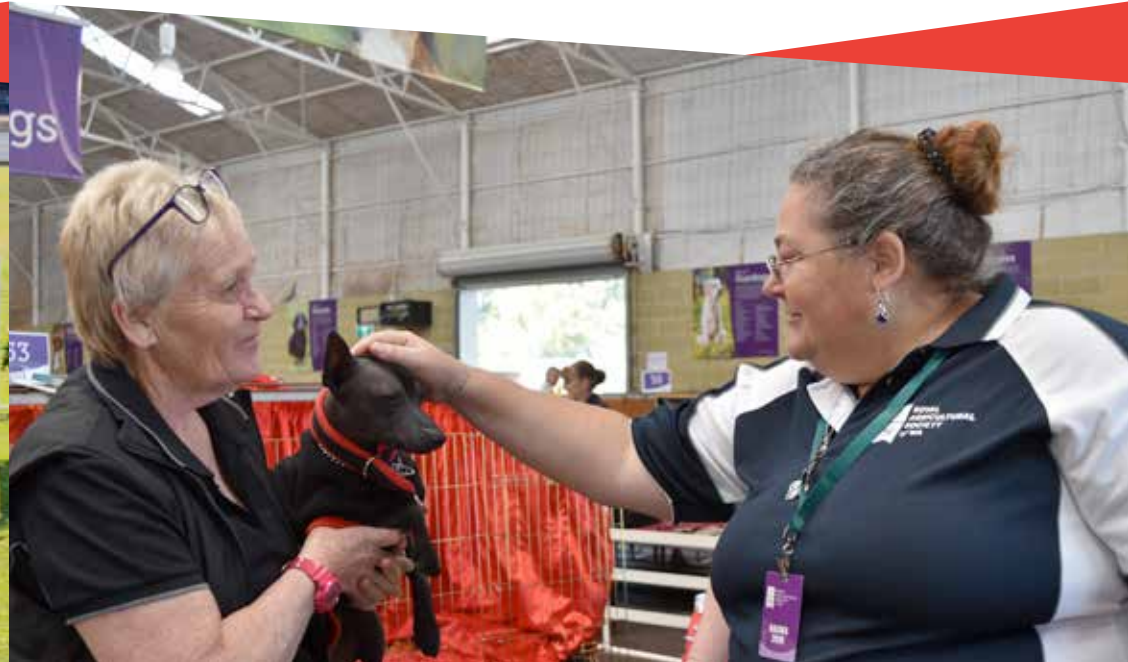

9.45am – 2.30pm

PIGEONS AND POULTRY

Making the morning tea for the stewards and judges.

Shifts Available
