It's that time of the year where every child is getting excited for the IGA Perth Royal Show and 40 lucky children have been picked to be our Showbag Testers!

The Acting Commissioner for Consumer Protection David Hillyard will be joined by the kids on the 5th of September to launch the Showbags for 2017. This exciting event takes place in the Wattle Room, Claremont Showground at 9.15am.

RASWA are supporting the Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service agency for the 2017 IGA Perth Royal Showbag Launch, providing mental health services to infants, children, young people and their families across the Perth metropolitan area.

We can't wait to meet the kids, ready to investigate everything the showbags have to offer this year, with their attendance at this yearly event imperative to all the kids of WA.
