

Code of Conduct

A welcoming, comfortable and safe space for all

PALMERSTON NORTH
CITY LIBRARY

Please do

- Remember parents and guardians are responsible for the supervision and behaviour of their children
- Enjoy the use of the wonderful facilities and respect the Code of Conduct
- Please respond immediately if staff ask you to comply with these rules
- Be considerate of others
- Ask permission before taking photos or video

Please do not

- Speak or behave in a threatening, offensive, disruptive or harassing way
- Solicit or petition (post notices, distribute circulars) without permission
- Engage in commercial activity without permission
- Have or use alcohol, illegal drugs or solvents or be under the influence of these
- Leave your children unattended
- Drive mobility scooters fast or without due consideration to others
- Ride skateboards, bikes, skates or scooters
- Damage, misuse, or steal library materials, equipment and property
- Bring your animals (except assist dogs)

Please respond immediately

If you do not comply, you could be asked to leave the Library, the Police could be called, or you could be served with a trespass order.
