TRANSITION ARRANGEMENTS

To facilitate the introduction of the new award Fair Work Australia has built in mechanisms that permit some new conditions of employment and wage rates, being phases in between 1.7.10 and 1.7.13, including Casual Loadings, Penalty Rates and Minimum Wages.

Each employer should compare their current workplace arrangements against Schedule ‘A’ of the award. If in doubt in relation to your obligations and your employee’s entitlements, you should contact Fair Work Australia’s helpline: 1300799675

SIGNIFICANT PROVISIONS.

Employment Categories – The award covers Full-time, Part-time or Casual employees.

Full-time – is an employee who is engaged to work an average of 38 hours per week;

Salaried staff – paid in accordance with clause 27 of the Award.

Part-time – is an employee engaged in writing as such, to work reasonably predictable hours, less than 38 per week, in shifts of a minimum of 3 consecutive hours. All time worked in excess of the hours agreed will be paid at overtime rates. They shall receive the entitlements of a fulltime employee on a proportional basis.

Casuals – Are employees not classified as ‘part-timers’, paid a loading of 25% on a Monday to Friday basis, for a minimum engagement of 2 hours.(see penalty matrix below for further details.

Classification Structure – Schedule ‘D’ of the award details a 7 level classification structure.

Hours of work – The ordinary hours of work shall be an average of 38 for full-time employees.

Full-time employees must not be rostered to work fewer than 6 nor more than 11.5 hours on any one day, exclusive of meal break intervals, nor more than 10 hours on more than 3 consecutive days. No more than 8 days of more than 10 hours may be worked in a 4 week period. Provided that the parties may agree to other arrangements for the working of the 38 hour week, under clause 29.2.

The rostering for all employees, other than casuals, will provide for a minimum break of 10 hours between the finish of ordinary hours on one day and the commencement of ordinary hours on the following day.

Weekly employees must be notified by the employer of their rostered hours at least 14 days in advance, however may be varied by mutual consent or due to circumstances beyond the control of the employer.
Penalty rates
