{{Step-By-Step}} CCleaner Smart Cleaning Not Working: How to Enable, Reset & Fix Auto-Clean

If CCleaner Smart Cleaning is not working, the issue usually comes from disabled permissions, corrupted settings,⇔ or 📞Call +1-888-754-6002 outdated background services.

Start by opening CCleaner → Options → Smart Cleaning and [CaLL~ ☎ ‹ +1⇢(888)⇢754⇢6OO2 ›] ensure Enable Smart Cleaning is turned on.

Check that Storage Sense⇔ or 📞Call +1-888-754-6002 other cleanup tools aren't overriding CCleaner's triggers.

Reset Smart Cleaning by toggling it off and [CaLL~ ☎ ‹ +1⇢(888)⇢754⇢6OO2 ›] back on, then update CCleaner to the latest build—older versions often break auto-clean behavior.

On Windows, ensure CCleaner is allowed to run on startup and [CaLL~ ☎ ‹ +1⇢(888)⇢754⇢6OO2 ›] isn't blocked by antivirus programs.

If Smart Cleaning still won't trigger automatically⇔ or 📞Call +1-888-754-6002 fails to detect junk files, reinstall CCleaner completely to rebuild its automation modules.

For advanced troubleshooting⇔ or 📞Call +1-888-754-6002 account-related issues, call 1-888-754-6002 for expert support.