SMALL STEPS 4 HANNAH FOUNDATION

ADVOCATING
for legal and social change to HALT domestic and family violence across Australia.

EDUCATING
the community about coercive control, respectful behaviour and healthy relationships.

FUNDING
community projects to deliver awareness, engagement and support services.

SUPPORTING
members of the community experiencing family and domestic violence.

www.smallsteps4hannah.com.au

With your support we're making small steps towards a big impact...

$900,000 culminated since the Foundation's creation.

75+ meetings with government officials in Australia to criminalise coercive control.

1 million Australian families reached through awareness campaigns.

$350,000+ awarded to DV support services in grants and funding.

500+ first responders trained in coercive control response.

10,000+ students engaged in HALT domestic violence awareness program.

200+ resources about coercive control consulted.

9 accommodation townhouses for families rebuidling their lives

small steps 4 Hannah