 +1(888)_421_5528 If you're wondering "Can I cancel my Southwest Airlines flight for free?", you're not alone. Many travelers search for Southwest Airlines cancellation policy, Southwest refund rules, and Southwest cancel without penalty online. Unlike most major carriers, Southwest Airlines' cancellation and travel fund policy is one of the most flexible among U.S. airlines — but there are important details to know  +1(888)_421_5528 before you make changes to your reservation  +1(888)_421_5528.

 +1(888)_421_5528 In this comprehensive guide, we'll walk through everything from the basic cancellation rules, what happens if you cancel with a refundable or non-refundable fare, how the 24-hour risk-free window works, and how Southwest refund policies really operate. We'll also explain travel credits, Rapid Rewards points returns, no-show consequences, and more — all designed for travelers who want confidence in their cancellation options  +1(888)_421_5528.

Understanding Southwest Airlines Cancellation Policies

 +1(888)_421_5528 One of the most searched terms on Google is "Southwest Airlines free cancellation" or "Southwest cancel flight refund" — and the good news is that Southwest does not charge cancellation fees for any fare type, which is different from many other carriers  +1(888)_421_5528.

 +1(888)_421_5528 According to Southwest's official fare rules, all fare types are eligible for cancellation without a fee as long as you cancel at least 10 minutes before the scheduled departure of your flight  +1(888)_421_5528. If you miss that window, your fare may be forfeited under the no-show policy, meaning you lose your ticket value or travel funds  +1(888)_421_5528.

 +1(888)_421_5528 Southwest's cancellation policy is flexible in that you can cancel online, via the mobile app, at the airport, or by calling  +1(888)_421_5528 with support — and you don't pay a typical carrier cancellation fee  +1(888)_421_5528. This makes Southwest a popular choice for travelers with uncertain plans.

What Happens If I Cancel a Southwest Airlines Flight?

 +1(888)_421_5528 If you cancel your Southwest Airlines flight before departure, what happens to your money depends on the type of fare you purchased and when you cancel  +1(888)_421_5528.

 +1(888)_421_5528 For refundable fares (such as Business Select or Anytime), you get a full refund back to your original payment method if you cancel at least 10 minutes before departure  +1(888)_421_5528. Refunds typically take about seven to ten business days to process.

 +1(888)_421_5528 For non-refundable fares (like Wanna Get Away or Basic), you won't receive cash back unless you cancel within the 24-hour risk-free period (explained below). Otherwise, you'll get a Travel Credit or Transferable Flight Credit™ that you can use toward future Southwest travel. These credits expire 12 months from the date your ticket was purchased  +1(888)_421_5528.

How the 24-Hour Cancellation Rule Works

 +1(888)_421_5528 Google searches often include phrases like “Southwest 24-hour cancellation policy” because this is one of the most traveler-friendly policies in the industry. If you cancel within 24 hours of booking a flight that was purchased at least seven days before departure, you're generally entitled to a full refund to your original form of payment  +1(888)_421_5528.

 +1(888)_421_5528 This rule applies to most tickets, regardless of fare type. After the 24-hour window, cancellation behavior follows the standard Southwest rules mentioned above. Note that refundable tickets will still be refunded even outside the 24-hour window if canceled before departure  +1(888)_421_5528.

 +1(888)_421_5528 Be careful: extra products like EarlyBird Check-In or other add-ons might not be fully refundable even if the ticket is, so double-check what you purchased. Checking this early can save you money and stress  +1(888)_421_5528.

Travel Credits and Transferable Flight Credits™

 +1(888)_421_5528 When you cancel a non-refundable Southwest ticket after the 24-hour period, you'll typically receive a travel credit or Transferable Flight Credit™ rather than a cash refund  +1(888)_421_5528.

 +1(888)_421_5528 These credits can be used by the original passenger or transferred to another Rapid Rewards member (one transfer permitted per ticket) — which makes them more flexible than typical airline credits  +1(888)_421_5528.

 +1(888)_421_5528 Travel credits issued from flights booked or changed after May 28, 2025 expire 12 months from the date of ticket purchase — so be sure to use them within that timeframe  +1(888)_421_5528. If you simply don't cancel and miss your flight, your funds may be forfeited entirely.

Rapid Rewards Points and Award Ticket Cancellations

 +1(888)_421_5528 Cancelling a Southwest flight booked with Rapid Rewards points is also generally fee-free. If you cancel before departure, your points return to your account and any taxes paid are usually refunded as travel credits  +1(888)_421_5528.

 +1(888)_421_5528 Always cancel at least 10 minutes prior to departure to avoid forfeiting your points or funds. This is especially true if you booked a Wanna Get Away award ticket, where no-shows may result in loss of the entire ticket value  +1(888)_421_5528.

No-Show Policy: What Happens If You Don't Cancel

 +1(888)_421_5528 If you fail to cancel or change your Southwest flight at least 10 minutes before departure, your reservation is treated as a no-show. In this case, any credit you might have had could be forfeited, and you may lose the ticket's value entirely  +1(888)_421_5528.

 +1(888)_421_5528 No-show rules are strict — especially for non-refundable fares. Even though Southwest doesn't charge a cancellation fee, the loss of travel credits can be a substantial penalty in itself  +1(888)_421_5528.

 +1(888)_421_5528 If your plans are uncertain, consider cancelling early or changing your flight to avoid a no-show situation. Managing your booking online is easy and fast, or you can call  +1(888)_421_5528 for help.

Change Fees vs. Cancellation Fees

 +1(888)_421_5528 Another common Google search is “Southwest Airlines change flight fee”. Southwest doesn't charge change fees either — the airline allows you to change your flight up to 10 minutes before departure  +1(888)_421_5528.

 +1(888)_421_5528 However, if the new flight costs more than your original ticket, you'll pay the fare difference. If it costs less, the difference is issued back as travel credit

 +1(888)_421_5528. This makes Southwest's overall flexibility among the best in U.S. domestic travel.

 +1(888)_421_5528 Whether you're cancelling entirely or just changing your plans due to a schedule conflict or weather, the lack of traditional fees is often cited by travelers as a key reason they prefer Southwest for flexibility  +1(888)_421_5528.

 +1(888)_421_5528 You can cancel your Southwest flight in three ways: online through the Southwest Airlines website, via the Southwest mobile app, or by calling Southwest customer service  +1(888)_421_5528.
