

Virtual War Memorial Australia Research Checklist – WW2

This fact sheet will guide you through researching an individual who served Australia in World War Two. The first page points you in the direction of resources that will give you basic details about the individual and their service. The second page helps you to take your research further and find extra information.

1 DVA NOMINAL ROLL

Lists basic information about all servicemen and women who served in World War Two, the Korean and Vietnam Wars. Select the conflict, then search using service number or name.

Extending Your Research

This page is for those who want to take their research to the next level. The following resources will help you to develop a better understanding of the experiences of your serviceman or servicewoman.

6 AWM – UNIT DIARIES

These record the daily activities of headquarters, formations and units. You will need to know the unit and class (eg. Infantry) in which your individual served.
