STEP TWO:

This will direct you to another page where the type of history event must first be selected from the dropdown box. The following definitions may assist in determining the most appropriate event for your person (remembering a person can be involved in more than 1 history event):

STEP TWO:

- Discharge: The details of the individuals' discharge from service.
- Embarkation: When and where the individual was loaded on transport to be sent overseas.
- Enlistment: The details of the individuals' enlistment for service.
- Honours and Awards: The details of an individuals' award. Honours and Awards include things like Mentions in Dispatches, which can be added in the 'Medals' text box.
- Involvement: The details of the conflicts that the individual served in.
- POW: The dates and place where the individual was interned as a Prisoner of War.
- Promotion: The date on which the individual was promoted.
- Transfer: The date on which the individual was transfer to a new unit.
- Wounded: The details of the individuals' wounds.

STEP THREE:

Once a history event has been selected from the dropdown box, the accompanying details can then be edited using the text boxes.

STEP FOUR:

When you have finished working, click the red button labelled 'Save' to complete your work.
