

Diploma of Leadership and Management Information for Candidates

The BSB51918 Diploma of Leadership and Management reflects the role of individuals who apply knowledge, practical skills and experience in leadership and management across a range of enterprise and industry contexts. Individuals at this level display initiative and judgement in planning, organising, implementing and monitoring their own workload and the workload of others. They use communication skills to support individuals and teams to meet organisational or enterprise requirements. They plan, design, apply and evaluate solutions to unpredictable problems, and identify, analyse and synthesise information from a variety of sources.

Student Handbook

Scouts Australia Institute of Training (SAIT) is the Enterprise Registered Training Organisation (RTO 5443) of Scouts Australia. Policies and practices of the Enterprise RTO can be located in the Student Handbook.

Typical learning pathways

There is no defined learning pathway in Scouts Australia that provides all of the learning and experiences that align to the requirements of the Diploma of Leadership and Management.

- A range of experiences and outcomes contribute to this qualification

Assessment

Be Prepared... for new adventure!

Members of Scouts Australia do not incur additional costs to complete a qualification. Anyone who has sufficient evidence can apply for a Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) assessment.

After enrolling you will;

1. Need to provide copies of the evidence that you are using for your RPL assessment.
2. After evidence is provided an Assessor will be assigned who will assess your evidence and work with you to address any gaps against the requirements of the qualification.

Upon successfully completing your assessment, you will receive a BSB51918 Diploma of Leadership and Management, with a transcript listing the units of competency you have completed.

Diploma of Leadership and Management (BSB51918)
