

Riverina Local Land Services

Feeding in dry times

Thursday 9 August | 2pm - 5pm
Hay Library (RSL room)

Landholders are invited to a free workshop to talk about feeding in dry times. Geoff Duddy Sheep Solutions and Dr. Sophie Hemley Riverina Local Land Services District Veterinarian will cover:

- Basic nutrition principles
- Feed requirements for different classes of livestock
- Feeding grains and alternative feeds including cotton seed
- Livestock health issues
- Early weaning decisions

Sally Ware Riverina Local Land Services will talk about:

- Native pasture considerations

This is an interactive session - please come along with questions!

Need assistance with your Livestock Production Assurance Accreditation? Want help with your Farm Biosecurity Plan?

Come along before the workshop (between 10am and 1pm) for assistance from Local Land Services staff at our Hay office, 56 Lachlan Street.

Just call Sally Ware - 0429 307 627 or sally.ware@lls.nsw.gov.au
