We have a Bishop!

The Anglican Diocese of Bunbury, Western Australia joyfully elected its 10th Bishop of the Diocese during its Election Synod.

The Bishop Elect is Rev'd Dr Ian Coutts, who currently works for both Anglicare NSW/ACT and St Marks Theological Centre in the ACT. Rev'd Ian Coutts was ordained Deacon in 1989 and Priest in 1990 in Birmingham, UK.

He is also a qualified social worker with particular experience in the fields of child protection and domestic violence.

Ian and his wife Anne emigrated from the UK in 2011 when his wife was offered a school principal's job in the ACT. Ian and his wife Anne have two daughters and two grandchildren still living in England.

Ian is arguably unique in the Anglican leadership as a senior priest with a strong practice background as a social worker. Ian's colleagues comment he is a man of profound Christian conviction, moral integrity and professional excellence. The best traditions of theological scholarship inform his thinking and scholarly learning and he is passionate about his commitment to make a positive difference in people's lives.

Ian's interests include flying and he has a British pilot's licence and enjoys recreational flying but does not own his own plane; and swimming, retreats, prayer time and holidays!

Special Notice

Boundaries Begins Soon... Relationships are complicated. At times we are unsure when it is appropriate to set limits and say 'no'. At other times we find it difficult to take ownership of our choices and responsibilities. Sometime we find it difficult to hear 'no' from others.

These are examples of boundary struggles that can affect all our relationships including parent, spouse, colleague and friend. Boundaries are invisible physical, mental and emotional lines that define who you are. Boundaries define where your property and responsibility begins and where your property and responsibility ends. Boundaries help us keep the good in and the bad out of our lives.

The BOUNDARIES course is for anyone who wants to continue growing in healthy relationships and self care.

July 25th - Sept 19th. Wednesday evenings 6.45pm for a 7pm start.

Register online or via the sign up sheet in the church.
