

Sermon Outline: "A Living Sacrifice"

Romans 12:1-10

17/09/17

A response of thanks

A Call to Sacrifice

A Call to Service

A Call to Sincerity

To ponder over a cuppa with a friend:

What mercy has God shown to us?

How can we renew our mind?

How is love described?

Bible Study: "A Living Sacrifice!"

Romans 12:1-10

17/09/17

1. What mercy has God shown to us?
2. In view of the mercy God has shown to us what ought our response be to what God has done?
3. What is to be offered as a living sacrifice? What is a living sacrifice?
4. What is worship?
5. What are we told not to do? In what ways would an individual Christian or the church conform to the world?
6. How can we be transformed? How do we renew our mind? How do we know God's will?
7. What is said of God's will? When would we question what is said of God's will?
8. How are we to think of ourselves?
9. One of the traps we fall into is comparing ourselves to others. Is this a sin? Why or why not? What reasons are we given for not comparing?
10. What gifts are listed? How would you define each one? What are the gifts for?
11. How is love described? Why is love important for the Christian life? (John 13:34-35)
12. What aspects of love do you struggle with? What aspects does the church struggle with, and what aspects do they do well?
