

Sermon Outline: “The Long Wait To Christmas”

Genesis 3:1-24

10/12/17

Time

What happened in the Garden?

Taking responsibility for our actions and quit the blame game

Judgement and punishment

The affect on relationships

Returning to the Garden

To ponder over a cuppa with a friend:

What happened in the Garden that sees good replaced with evil?

How were the relationships affected?

What How does knowing enmity exists help you in your walk with Christ?

Bible Study: “The Long Wait To Christmas!”

Genesis 3:1-24

10/12/17

1. Why is Genesis 3 titled “The Fall of Man?”
2. What instructions were the man and woman given for living in the Garden?
3. What did Eve say about eating from the tree in the Garden? What did the serpent say? Compare the responses.
4. Who is the serpent?
5. Was Eve deceived? (I Tim. 2:14) If Eve was deceived, how was she deceived?
6. Was Adam deceived? Who is held responsible for eating the fruit and why? What did eating the forbidden fruit symbolize?
7. What happened when they ate the forbidden fruit?
8. How were their relationships affected?
Relationship with God
Relationship with spouses and mankind
Relationship with environment
9. What lessons should man learn from Genesis 3?
10. What judgement / punishment was given to
The serpent
The woman
The man
The environment
11. What is enmity? Who is the enmity between? How will the enmity cease? How does knowing the enmity exists help you in your walk with Christ?
12. What do the cherubim represent? Will it be possible to re-enter the Garden? If so, how?