

Sermon Outline: “To Us A Child Is Born!”

Isaiah 9:1-7

12/12/2021

Government

Contrasts

Names

Our response

To ponder over a cuppa with a friend:

What do you complain about?

What makes the difference in the descriptions of the governments?

What do the names mean?

Sermon Questions: “To Us A Child Is Born!”

Isaiah 9:1-7

12/12/2021

1. What is your favourite Christmas Carol?
2. What is your favourite Christmas reflection?
3. What difference do you find between a secular Christmas and a scriptural one?
4. Why is the virgin birth so important to the Christian faith?
5. What is the virgin birth a sign of?
6. What are some of the differences between the traits of the various governments?
7. How does God intend to change the governments?
8. What are the names given to the son to be born?
9. What do these names mean?
10. How would you explain the “Everlasting Father” as a son?
11. What would these names have signified at the time Isaiah was writing?
12. Where was the nation at spiritually?