

Sermon Outline: “Job – The Best Is Yet To Come!”

Job 42:1-17

02/10/2022

The best is yet to come

Job’s reaction to God’s questioning (42:1-6)

God’s summing up of the action of the three friends (42:7-9)

God’s blessing of Job (42:10-17)

To ponder over a cuppa with a friend:

What does Job say of God?

Why would you say the sacrifice is costly?

How much did God bless Job?

Sermon Questions: “Job – The Best Is Yet To Come!”

Job 42:1 - 17

02/10/2022

1. What does Job say of God? (42:2) Why would this be comforting?
2. What does Job admit? (42:3)
3. How can Job see God? (42:5)
4. What does Job repent of? (42:6)
5. Why is God angry with the three friends?
6. What had the three friends done wrong? (42:7)
7. Why would you say the sacrifice is costly? What does the sacrifice symbolize?
8. Is there anything unusual about Job’s prayer? (42:8)
9. Who came to comfort Job? How would you comfort / console someone?
10. How much did God bless Job? (42:10)
11. What was special about the daughters? (42:15)
12. What have you learnt of God in the book of Job?