Upon registering for the Competition, entrants will automatically be entered into the “public league”, which will contain all entrants’ tallied scores and the overall rankings. In addition, entrants can create a “private league” and invite other entrants to join the “private league”. “Private leagues” will contain the names and scores of all entrants that are part of that “private league”, but in no way will affect the “public league” rankings.

An entrant's chances of winning a Prize will not be affected by whether or not they join a “private league”.

Rankings of the “public league” displayed on the Website include the rankings of all entrants and not only the rankings of entrants that are eligible to win a prize.

After registration, entrants may submit tips in all remaining Matches which have not been completed or Locked Out during the Competition Period.

The winner of the 2018 Major Tipping Prize will be the eligible entrant with the unique best score, to be determined by assessing the scoring criteria in the following order until a unique winner is ascertained:

ITEM 6: METHOD OF ENTRY

ITEM 7: JUDGING DETAILS

1. The winner of the 2018 Major Tipping Prize will be the eligible entrant with the highest Cumulative Tip Score at the end of the Competition Period.
2. In the event of a tie between two or more eligible entrants with the equal highest Cumulative Tip Score, the winner will be the entrant with lowest Cumulative Margin Score.
3. If this fails to break the tie, the winner will be the entrant with lowest Margin Score in that Round (with respect to the 2018 Major Tipping Prize, the final Round of the 2018 Toyota AFL Premiership Season. Premiership Season Fixture will be the relevant Round to decide a tie in this instance).
4. If, after assessing the three scores above, there is not one unique winner, the entrants who registered for this Competition first in time (of the eligible leading entrants that have been assessed against the three scoring criteria) will be ranked higher and deemed the winner of the 2018 Major Tipping Prize.

Submitting tips for each Round

For the first match in each Round, Entrants can pick (tip):

- the team to win the Match; and
- the margin by which the team they pick will win that Match.

For subsequent matches in each Round, entrants can pick (tip):

- the team to win the Match only.

ITEM 8: COMPETITION DETAILS

Tips for a particular Match must be submitted before the Lockout Time that applies to the Match, by visiting <http://www.6PR.com.au/footytipping> and submitting their tip entry including their Margin Score, in accordance with the instructions.

For clarity, an entrant may choose and edit their entered tips for a match at any time before the Lockout Time for that specific Match in a given Round as notified on the Website.

Tip Score

The object is to achieve the highest number of points by correctly tipping which team will win each Match. Points will be awarded to each entrant in each Round after they have registered in accordance with the following:

CORRECT TIP = 1 Point

INCORRECT TIP = 0 Points

BONUS SCORE FOR TIPPING ALL WINNERS CORRECTLY IN ANY GIVEN ROUND = 2 Points

If a Match results in a draw between the two teams playing, the result will be treated as a CORRECT TIP.

If a Match does not proceed, is cancelled or abandoned before the Match is completed, the Match will be treated as an INCORRECT TIP.

Non-submission of tips by the entrant for any given Match results in the Away Team being selected for the entrant by default.

In the case where the entrant has registered after a Round or several Rounds have been Locked Out, the entrant will receive a Tip Score based on selecting the Away Team in every completed Round and the average Margin Score for all entrants for each completed Round.

Cumulative Tip Score

The Cumulative Tip Score is the sum of all Tip Scores for an entrant for all completed Rounds.

Margin Score

The Margin Score is used as a tie-breaker should more than one entry be ranked equally based on points. The entrant's Match Margin Score is calculated as the difference between the margin selected by the entrant and the actual margin for each match. For example, if a team is tipped to WIN by 10 points and the actual result is a WIN by 5 points, the Match Margin Score awarded for that match will be 5 points. Entrants with a Tip Score of zero for a particular match will receive in the average Match Margin Score for all entrants for that match being awarded.

Non-submission of margin prediction for a particular match will result in the average Match Margin Score for all entrants for that match being awarded.

Cumulative Margin Score is the total of all Margin Scores awarded for all completed Rounds to date.
