ITEM 8: COMPETITION
DETAILS

Submitting tips for each Round

For each match, entrants can pick (tip):
- the team to win the Match; and

- the margin by which the team they pick will win that Match.

Tips for a particular Match must be submitted before the Lockout Time that applies to the Match, by visiting rugbyleaguelive.com and submitting their tip entry including their Margin Score, in accordance with the instructions.

For clarity, an entrant may choose and edit their entered tips for a match at any time before the Lockout Time for that specific match in a given Round as notified on the Website.

Tip Score

The object is to achieve the highest number of points. Points will be awarded to each entrant in each Round after they have registered in accordance with the following:

CORRECT TIP = 1 Point

INCORRECT TIP = 0 Points

BONUS SCORE FOR TIPPING ALL WINNERS CORRECTLY IN ANY GIVEN ROUND = 2 Points

Non-submission of tips for any given match results in the Away Team selected by default.

In the case where the entrant has registered after a Round or several Rounds have been Locked Out, the entrant will receive a Tip Score based on selecting the Away Team in every completed Round and the average Margin Score for all entrants for each completed Round.

Cumulative Tip Score

The Cumulative Tip Score is the sum of all Tip Scores for an entrant for all completed Rounds.

Margin Score

The Margin Score is used as a tie-breaker should more than one entry be ranked equally based on points. The Margin Score is the sum of an entrant's Match Margin Scores for each match in a particular Round. The entrant's Match Margin Score is calculated as the difference between the margin selected by the entrant and the actual margin for each match. For example, if a team is tipped to WIN by 10 points and the actual result is a WIN by 5 points, the Match Margin Score awarded for that match will be 5 points.

Entrants with a Tip Score of zero for a particular match will receive in the average Match Margin Score for all entrants for that match being awarded.

Non-submission of margin prediction for a particular match will result in the average Match Margin Score for all entrants for that match being awarded.

Cumulative Margin Score is the total of all Margin Scores awarded for all completed Rounds to date.
