For more information please contact the College on 4353 0017

Or browse the College's web page at www.tlkcc.com.au

Office Hours: 8.30am to 5pm Monday to Friday

Content: make a difference to someone's life every time you go to work with the Certificate III in Community Services. This qualification may be used as a pathway qualification into community services work and may apply specifically to:

- Workers who support individuals by providing a first point of contact in a crisis situation and referral to a broad range of services or
- Workers in residential facilities and/or in community services under direct or regular supervision within clearly defined organisation guidelines and service plans.

Job roles: job roles may include Client contact officer, Community care worker, Residential support worker, Support worker, Youth worker, Contact officers, Customer service staff

Course duration: The average completion time is approximately ten months, via an Individual Training Plan. This is a self-paced program and the more time allocated to study will determine when the qualification can be achieved. The regular submission of assessment tasks is required.

Delivery modes and how you will learn: Available by class attendance, online or distance study, you will learn through discussion, problem solving and completing assignments and in preparing for assessment. This involves a range of learning activities throughout, including in-class projects. Following this, you will also prepare and submit written assignments, as well as perform activities to demonstrate your knowledge and skills.

Assessment: Students are provided with a full set of workbooks for use throughout the program with clear instructions on the assessments required. You will prepare and submit written assignments and relevant portfolios, as well as demonstrate your knowledge and skills under the conditions prescribed by the unit/s of competency being assessed. As a general indication students are required to undertake a minimum of three (3) assessments per unit of competency. The assessment appeal process is detailed in the Student Handbook.

Pre-requisites: There are no pre-requisites or selection criteria for this qualification. If under 18 your enrolment form must be signed by a parent or guardian.

Pathways information: This qualification may provide an appropriate pathway into higher level qualifications, such as those in aged care, disability and home and community care.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Credit Transfer (CT): You may be able to shorten the length of your course by measuring skills acquired through work, life experiences or qualifications obtained from formal studies or training. Accredited qualifications and statements of attainment issued by another registered training organisation are recognised. Please see the Student Handbook for more information.

Student support: If you feel you need to speak to someone about individual needs for learning or study pathways, please contact TLKCC on 4353 0017. More details are provided in the Student Handbook.

Induction and attendance: You will receive induction as appropriate to your course. Students enrolled in face-to-face courses are required to attend the scheduled course training days. Refer to TLKCC's Student Handbook for further information.

Employability skills: This qualification incorporates foundation skills development to prepare for workforce entry or vocational training pathways. Foundation skills are embedded into training and assessment. Foundation skills cover the Australia Core Skills Framework (ACSF) five core skills, plus employability skills.

Unique Student Identifier (USI) Number: Students enrolled in accredited training are required to provide TLKCC with a USI. TLKCC can assist you. You can create your USI at: <http://usi.gov.au/create-your-USI/Pages/default.aspx>.
