Building your career foundation...

Content: make a difference to someone's life every time you go to work with the Certificate II in Community Services. This qualification may be used as a pathway qualification into community services work and may apply specifically to:

- Workers who support individuals by providing a first point of contact in a crisis situation and referral to a broad range of services or
- Workers in residential facilities and/or in community services under direct or regular supervision within clearly defined organisation guidelines and service plans.

Job roles: job roles may include: Care Worker | Home Helper | Personal Care Assistant | Support Worker | Care Service Employee | Contact Officers | Customer Service Staff | Domestic Assistant.

Course duration: the average completion time is approximately twelve months, via an Individual Training Plan. This is a self-paced program and the more time allocated to study will determine when the qualification can be achieved. The regular submission of assessment tasks is required.

Delivery modes and how you will learn: available by face to face or by distance learning (face to face classes are subject to sufficient student numbers), you will learn through discussion, problem solving, completing assignments and in preparing for assessment. This involves learning activities with discussion and problem solving, including in-class projects. Following this, you will also prepare and submit written assignments, as well as demonstrate your knowledge and skills that are either in, or replicate, workplace conditions.

Assessment: students are provided with a full set of workbooks for use throughout the program with clear instructions on the assessments required. You will prepare and submit written assignments and relevant portfolios, as well as demonstrate your knowledge and skills under the conditions prescribed by the unit/s of competency being assessed. As a general indication students are required to undertake a minimum of three (3) assessments per unit of competency. The assessment appeal process is detailed in the Student Handbook.

Pre-requisites: there are no pre-requisites or selection criteria for this qualification. If under 18 your enrolment form must be signed by a parent or guardian. You may be required to undertake a language, literacy, numeracy and digital skills review prior to course enrolment.

Pathways information: this qualification may provide an appropriate pathway into higher level qualifications, such as those in aged care, disability and home and community care.

Recognition of prior learning and credit transfer: you may be able to shorten the length of your course by measuring skills acquired through work, life experiences or qualifications obtained from formal studies or training. Accredited qualifications and statements of attainment issued by another registered training organisation are recognised. Please see the Student Handbook for more information.

Student support: if you feel you need to speak to someone about individual needs for learning or study pathways, please contact the College on 43530017. More details are provided in the Student Handbook.

Induction and attendance: you will receive induction as appropriate to your course. Students enrolled in face-to-face courses are required to attend the scheduled course training days. Refer to the College's Student Handbook for further information.

Foundation skills: this qualification incorporates foundation skills development to prepare for workforce entry or vocational training pathways. Foundation skills are embedded into training and assessment. Foundation skills cover the Australia Core Skills Framework (ACSF) five core skills, plus employability skills.

Employability skills: in addition to achieving competency in the units of study, employability skills are developed and demonstrated by graduates in: communication, teamwork, problem-solving, initiative and enterprise, planning and organising, self-management, learning and technology.

Unique Student Identifier (USI) Number: students enrolled in accredited training are required to provide the College with a USI. The College can assist you. You can create your USI at: <http://usi.gov.au/create-your-USI/Pages/default.aspx>
