

Maintain your musical training while you study English

Continue your musical training while you complete your English language studies at the Centre for English Teaching.

The Open Academy at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music offers one-to-one music lessons with degree-qualified teachers across a wide range of instrumental areas.

Experience the supportive learning environment at the Con, and enjoy our world-famous campus and facilities.

You can also enjoy a complimentary weekly class with the Conservatorium Choir, and meet other students and teachers before starting your degree.

To be eligible, you must:

- Be an international student
- Hold a packaged offer for a program at the Centre of English Teaching and an offer for a degree at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music

Music Lessons at Open Academy

- Choose between 30, 45, or 60 minute lessons
