What did King Nebuchadnezzar build?
He thought it was awesome! He wanted everyone to see it.
What did he command everyone to do?
He wanted them to treat the statue as a god.
Who did not bow down to the king's statue?
Why not?
What did the king threaten them with?
What did they say to the king?

Christians Under Pressure

There are many places in the world where Christians are threatened in ways similar to Daniel's friends. Here is one example:

Pastor "James" went to collect the food that the central Indian government is providing to poor and needy families affected by Covid-19 lockdown, but the distribution was organized by local Hindu extremist groups, who dominate the government in the state where Pastor James lives. They refused to give him anything unless he renounced his faith in the Lord Jesus. Of course, Pastor James would not deny his beloved Saviour, so he went home empty-handed to his hungry family.
